

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

HALF-DAY CONVENTIONS

Following our Convention in Lewes in May, we are planning to hold two further conferences this year (DV), one in the north of England on the 18th September and the other in Northern Ireland on the 23rd October. It is hoped that the meetings will be well supported and that friends, and members of the Fellowship in particular, will avail themselves of these opportunities of meeting together around the Word of God.

Zion Chapel, Morley, near Leeds is the venue for the first Convention and details of the meetings are included on a separate sheet. Arrangements for the Convention in Northern Ireland have yet to be finalised but it is anticipated that the meetings will take place in the city of Belfast. Further details will be announced in due course. The speaker on both occasions will be Rev Ronald Hanko, resident pastor of Covenant Reformed Fellowship in Ballymena, Northern Ireland.

1994 FAMILY HOLIDAY CONFERENCE

Scotland has been chosen as the venue for our third Family Conference. The dates are 30th July - 6th August and the venue is the Scottish College of Textiles, Galashiels, Selkirkshire.

The town of Galashiels is situated in the centre of the Scottish Borders, close to the scenic valley of the river Tweed, and within easy travelling distance of Scotland's capital city. Professors David Engelsma and Herman Hanko of the Protestant Reformed Churches of America have already accepted invitations to address the Conference on the subject of "The Doctrine of Sovereign Grace," and it is hoped that Rev Sinclair Horne, Secretary of the Scottish Reformation Society, will also take part. Tours are planned to Edinburgh, sites associated with the Scottish Covenanters, places of historic interest and areas of natural beauty. Brochures and booking forms will be available shortly but in the meantime we would encourage all friends to reserve the dates and make a firm resolution to attend! The College facilities can cater for up to 200 residents, so there should be ample accomodation for all who wish to attend.

See you in Galashiels!